Parking & Shuttle Service

Free parking in city lots on Person Street & Hay Street, as well as other various downtown locations. Paid parking in Systel parking lot, 225 Green Street.

Free off-site shuttle service available on 121 Lamon Street. Shuttle service is free and runs approximately every 15 minutes to transport passengers to the festival footprint. Hours of operation: Saturday 3 pm to 11 pm & Sunday from 1 pm to 6 pm.

Disabled parking is designated in the Bank of America & Hay Street United Methodist Church lot. Availability is first come-first serve.

Partnership's KidStuff

This year's feature attraction will be the Pirates in the Sky, a one of a kind thrill show, and the Toddler Zone, which will have an inflatable Buccaneer that the toddlers will love! KidStuff will also have face painting, interactive games, and the Rock-A-Bye Baby tent which is designated for nursing mothers to seek shade, comfort and privacy.

Pirates of the Sky

Bring the whole family out for this show of musical lore of pirate courage. The pirates spin their tale while revolving 50 feet overhead on a giant aerial anchor. At the last minute the high wire breaks, throwing the stunt pirates in different directions in mid air. Shows are offered free of charge and will be at 1:00, 3:00, 5:00 & 7:00 on Saturday and 1:00, 3:00 and 5:00 pm on Sunday

Bloom & Boom Kickoff Party

Join us in Festival Park for the official kickoff party to the 28th Annual Fayetteville Dogwood Festival. Fireworks finale. Brought to you by H & H Homes.

Street Festival

Hours: Saturday, Noon - 8:00 pm, Sunday 1:00 pm - 6:00 pm
 Virtually every kind of arts and crafts vendor will be represented at the festival, which includes pottery, paintings, jewelry, sculptors and much more!

LaFayette Ford Classic Car Show

Sunday, April 25, 1:00 pm - 6:00 pm
 400 Block of Hay Street
 Antique cars and trucks, restored classic vehicles and custom hot rods on display. Public invited to vote for their favorite vehicle.

Rides, Games & More

Be sure to come out Friday night, starting at 6 pm for all-you-can-ride wristbands. Bring your receipt from any local Taco Bell and receive a discount on your wristband. Coupons for a discount on wristbands can be picked up at your local Family Foods Taco Bell locations. Saturday and Sunday, midway rides are open during regular festival hours and will operate on a ticketed system.
